

Students taking AP Literature & Composition in the fall will need to

1. Check out a copy of How to Read Literature like a Professor from the media center or library and read the entire book before the semester begins, and
2. Have a short list of possible colleges and possible majors prepared before the first day of class.

I look forward to working with you all!

-PShull